

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, from medieval times, a Key to the City has been awarded to distinguished persons and outstanding civic contributors standing in a special position of trust to the citizens of a town; and

WHEREAS, Benjamin A. Peacock served his country courageously as a member of the United States Army; and

WHEREAS, Benjamin A. Peacock has had a long and distinguished career in the field of information technology; and

WHEREAS, Benjamin A. Peacock has a broad background in information technology working successfully on many different computer platforms, operating systems, applications and hardware around the world; and

WHEREAS, since relocating his home to East Bend, he has volunteered and contributed to his community, including serving for several years as an officer for the East Bend God and Country Foundation; and

WHEREAS, on recognizing the need, he worked without remuneration to enhance and revitalize the web site of the Town of East Bend, volunteering his considerable skills and knowledge to the betterment of his community and implementing a web site which facilitates interaction between the Town of East Bend and its citizens;

NOW, THEREFORE, Archie Hicks, Mayor of the Town of East Bend, with the unanimous concurrence of the Commissioners of the Town of East Bend, on behalf of the citizens of East Bend, award the Key to the Town of East Bend to Benjamin A. Peacock.

IN OBSERVANCE THEREOF, I call upon the residents of the Town of East Bend to join me and the Town Commissioners in honoring and commending Benjamin A. Peacock for his contribution to our community.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand and the seal of the Town of East Bend.

Archie B. Hicks, Jr.

Archie Hicks, Mayor
