

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, from medieval times, a Key to the City has been awarded to distinguished persons and outstanding civic contributors standing in a special position of trust to the citizens of a town; and

WHEREAS, Shirley Ann Flood, since relocating to East Bend fifteen years ago, has contributed much to the social fabric of the town and been the epitome of the good neighbor; and

WHEREAS since 2009 she has volunteered countless hours and taken a leadership role in the East Bend God and Country Celebration and the Small Town Christmas event; and

WHEREAS when in 2016 the East Bend God and Country Celebration faced a major crisis in organization and tax status, she stepped forward as a leader to solve those issues, so that the Celebration has continued successfully to the present time; and

WHEREAS, with her husband Bruce, she is always quick to respond and lend her hands and heart to her neighbors when there is a need, great or small; and

WHEREAS, throughout her entire life, she has shown great organizational skills and civic responsibility, including at work at Eaton Corporation and as a leader in the Girl Scouts.

NOW, THEREFORE, Archie Hicks, Mayor of the Town of East Bend, with the unanimous concurrence of the Commissioners of the Town of East Bend, on behalf of the grateful citizens of East Bend, awards the Key to the Town of East Bend to Shirley Ann Flood.

IN OBSERVANCE THEREOF, I call upon the residents of the Town of East Bend to join me and the Town Commissioners in honoring and commending Shirley Ann Flood for her contribution to our community.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand and the seal of the Town of East Bend.

This the 9th day of March, 2020.

Archie B. Hicks, Jr.
Archie Hicks, Mayor
